Frank Shea Declares He Will Not Return to State Hospital—
Large Class Graduated at Pawcatuck Grammar School—Band Concert—Public Playgrounds to Open Monday.

The large assembly hall of the West Broad street school, Pawcatuck, was filled Thursday afternoon at the grammar school graduation, under the direction of Principal Ephraim P. Colson. The stage was decorated with small flags and seasonal flowers. On the stage with Principal Colson, were William A. Wilcox, chairman of the school committee, Superintendent Woodworth and Rev. F. Stewart Kinley, pastor of the First Baptist church of Westerly. The program included three singing numbers which showed the careful and competent training of Miss Harriet N. Woodard, whose long term as music instructor of Stonington schools is now at an end. She has resigned and will move to Leominster, Mass. The exercises were as follows:

Songs, Bacarolla, grades 7 and 8; essay, The Red Cross, Blanche Gavitt; violin solo, Earle Leonard; recitation, Trick versus Trick, Harold Taylor; homophone, ten girls; A Review, James Kenyon; Section from Polyanna, Ethel Wilson; song, Lullaby, grades 7 and 8; The Westerner, four teen boys; presentation of class gift to the school, framed steel engraving of The Declaration of Independence, presented in behalf of the class by Martin Ryan and accepted by Principal Colson; presentation of diplomas, by Chairman William A. Wilcox. The exercises closed with the singing of For Our Country's Flag by grades 7 and 8.

Rev. F. Stewart Kinley awarded the P. S. Barber Memorial Fund prizes as follows: for best essays: "first prize, $20 in gold, to Lester Higginbotham; second prize, $10, to James Bell; third prize, $5, to Martin Ryan. The first and second prize essays referred to the Panama Canal and the third to the Pequot Indians.

as a nucleus and then endeavor to have those residing elsewhere to become members of the organization.

Miss Woodard Appreciated.
Miss Harriet Woodard, for several years instructor in music in the Stonington schools, has resigned. In recognition of her good service the teachers and pupils have presented her a purse of gold. Miss Woodard is to go to Leominster, Mass. Dr. W. H. Perry, formerly superintendent of schools in Stonington, is superintendent of the Leominster schools.

Championship Still Strong.
The champion Westerly High school baseball team, will be in good form to return the title next season, as only two of the members, Captain Leon O'Connell and Hubert Kilars have retired. Charles Miller has been elected captain, to succeed O'Connell, who has graduated and will enter the University of Maine. Edwin Higgins has been elected manager to succeed John W. Haley, who is to be a student of Brown university.

Normal School Graduates.
Miss Thelma Hinckley, daughter of Judge Elias B. Hinckley, and Miss Alma Kilars, daughter of John Kilars, of Stonington borough, were graduated with honors from the Bridge-water (Mass.) Normal school. The twenty-fifth anniversary commencement exercises were held this week. The Bridgewater, is one of the very oldest state normal schools in the United States, and said to be the equal of any. Both young ladies have been asked to teach in the Stonington schools.

Consular Agent Appointed.
Elias B. Hinckley, judge of probate of the town of Stonington, has been appointed Michele Riccio, consular agent of Italy, stationed in New Haven, administrator of the estate of Domenico Tibello.
